

INMEED 2019

Annual Scientific Meeting
www.inmed.ie
6th - 8th February
Irish Lifecourse Building
NUI Galway

Health Professions Education: Developing the Whole Person

Day 1 / Wed 6th Feb

Pre Conference Workshops

- Teacher development (full-day workshop)
- Humanities in Health-Professions Education (half-day workshop)
- Schwartz in Action: Improving patient care through staff care (half-day workshop)
- Identifying and Responding to Students in Distress and at Risk (half-day workshop)

Day 2 / Thurs 7th Feb

Keynote Addresses

- David Shlim, Past President of International Society of Travel Medicine
Healthcare and Compassion; Can the capacity for compassion be trained?
- Professor Brian Hurwitz, President of Medicine and the Arts, King's College London
Anecdotes and Human Flourishing
- Open floor Q&A

Research & Innovation Presentations

- Parallel Oral and Sound Bytes presentations

Day 2 / Thurs 7th Feb

Workshops

- Addressing Student Well-Being Head On
- Out of the Silos - Learning how to learn together. An interprofessional educator workshop by PACE

Student Session

- What being a healthcare professional means to me

Day 3 / Fri 8th Feb

Rapid Infusion Workshops

- Training in Compassion- is it possible and how would you do it?
- Mentoring undergraduate students in the health sciences
- Getting Published
- EXQUISITE Qualitative research
- Supporting medical students workplace-learning

Keynote Address

- Barbara Wren Consultant Psychologist and Lead for Schwartz Rounds at Royal Free Hampstead NHS Trust
Linking Organisational storytelling to clinical and organisational realities: the success of the Schwartz Rounds

Conference Closing

- Hot topic presentations
- Prize Giving